HOUSE SIZE: 80m² PLOT SIZE: 147m²

Charming two-bedroom home in the village of Gavalomouri, fully-furnished and ready to move into.

This cozy property is located near the village of Voukolies where one can find all sorts of amenities including supermarket, tavernas, pharmacy, cafes, bakery, bank and many more. Tavronitis village & beach are also a short drive away.

The house is surrounded by olive trees and greenery, and offers amazing views of the White Mountains.

A few steps lead from the parking area to the main entrance. The main door opens to the comfortable living area and a separate open plan kitchen/dining room. The light-coloured kitchen is equipped with an oven with ceramic hob, and is spacious enough to fit a dining table and chairs.

Patio doors open from the kitchen and living room onto the covered balcony with wind screens, a perfect area for wining and dining even during the winter, while enjoying the enchanting views over the mountains, the surrounding hills and the olive groves.

Also on this floor is a WC with basin and a separate under stairs storage room which housing the electric heating boiler.

Tiled steps lead to the top floor with two double bedrooms and a fully-equipped bathroom with a bath and shower. Both bedrooms have wardrobes and French windows opening onto a balcony with a wooden pergola.

The house is surrounded by a low-maintenance and walled, private garden.

Within walking distance the village has 2 kafenions.

This property offers comfort and space and is ideal for year-round living as well as for a holiday home for lovers of quiet and tranquil settings.
